In a location that exudes...

*Style,
Sophistication and Serenity*

The Palm Tee is a charming mid-century hotel set in a quiet upscale neighborhood of Palm Springs which has been home to several Hollywood celebrities. Stunning views abound from balconies, rooms and the inviting pool... all enveloped by the lush, mature landscape. With a host of upscale amenities in common rooms that include TV and internet access, and inviting pool, the Palm has been carefully upgraded to 'boutique hotel' standards with comfortable beds, luxurious beddings and inviting common areas... environs carefully crafted to relax the body and refresh the soul, so our guests can focus on moving ahead.

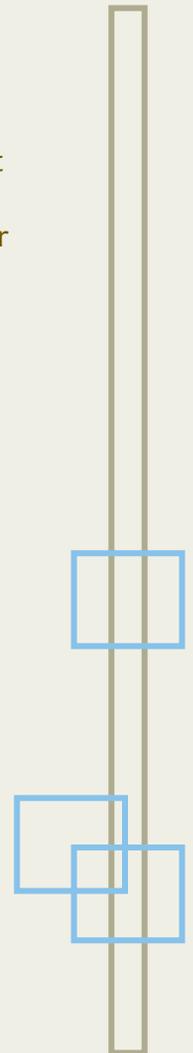

Wrought from years of personal experience.

Ken Seeley Communities believes in the achievable goal of lifelong sobriety. Addiction is a chronic, progressive disease, and even with extended treatment programs, relapse, jail and even untimely death happen all too frequently. We know. We've been in your shoes and we've seen it happen.

At Ken Seeley Communities, we've created a protocol for long-term sobriety that imposes greater accountability on the individual, their family and even related professionals. By shifting the focus from 30 days to long-term, we provide goals that reach into the future and create a continuing care plan. Individuals that have a 5-year continuum of care have an 80-95% success rate. Individuals that do not have a 5-year plan have a much lower chance of staying sober after the first year.

Your stay at The Palm Tee is designed to be the cornerstone to your long-term blueprint for success.

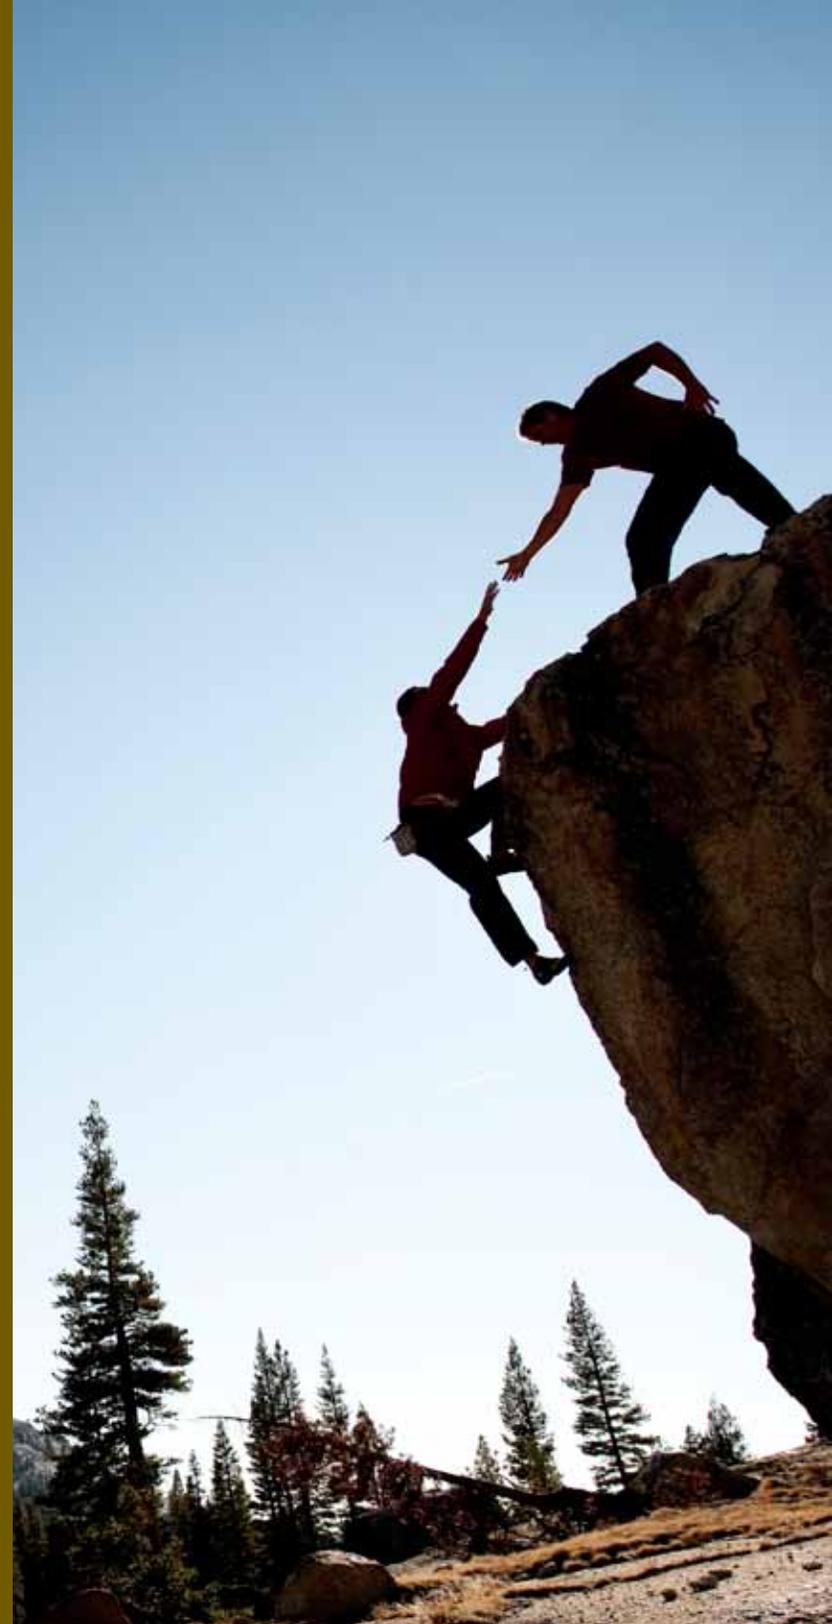

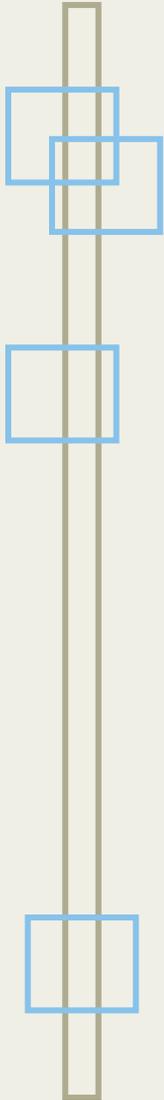

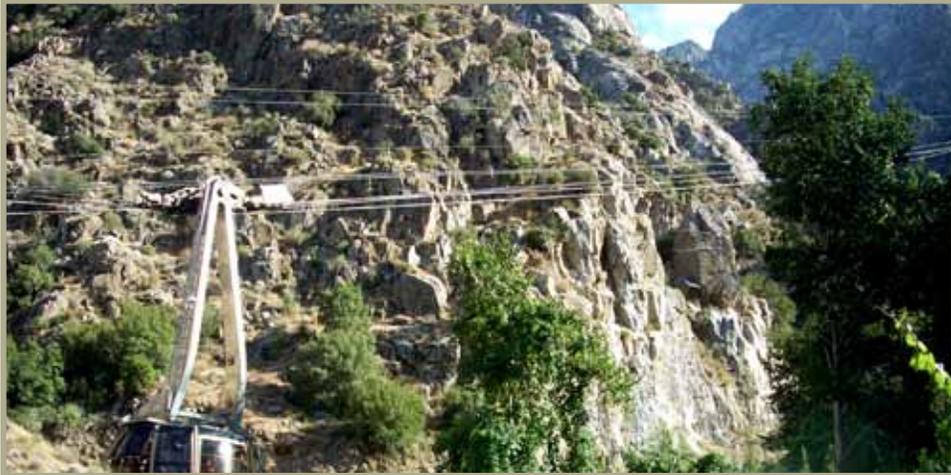

With every conceivable means of success.

From the beginning of your stay, we provide you with resources to assess your needs and help develop a comprehensive plan. Learning how to cope with the desire to relapse and getting to the root of the problem is where true recovery begins, and is what Ken Seeley Communities are all about.

Ken has been fortunate enough to travel the country and work with many sober livings, which he was able to combine the best in all to create this environment. Certified as a Board Registered Interventionist-II and Registered Addiction Specialist, Ken Seeley has been clean and sober since 1989. Seeley's remarkable success rate has turned him into one of the most sought-after interventionists in the country. Doctors and health care professionals look to Ken to solve their patient's addiction and mental health issues. His knowledge and unique perspective have also made him the #1 go-to expert on the subject of addiction and intervention with the media, where he's a regular contributor for CNN, MSNBC, NBC, CBS, FOX, ABC, and many others.

This unparalleled expertise provides our residents access to ongoing assessment, a range of programs and additional resources specifically recommended to improve successful outcomes such as treatment referral, case management, life skills and sober companions.

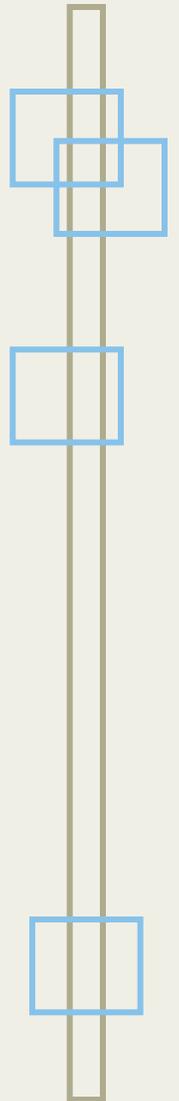

Set in one of the premier locations in the world.

Few places in the world are as famous or surrounded by such spectacular beauty as Palm Springs. Long recognized as a center of natural healing, the Cahuilla Indians extolled the healing properties of the hot springs and considered the desert a vast repository of healing plants. The first hotels in the city played host to guests seeking respite and recovery from a variety of ailments. Even the magnificent mountain panoramas have long been considered to provide healing for one's soul. According to Palm Springs Life, The late Father Brad Hall, reflecting on the areas mountains, referred to the healing power of Psalm 121: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help," and Mt. San Jacinto is considered a point of power by the Cahuilla.

Our guests can enjoy Palm Springs firsthand... hiking in the canyons, enjoying the culture and diversity of the city and experiencing the truly unique destination that draws visitors from the world over.

It is not coincidence, then, that The Palm Tee is here in Palm Springs but rather an element of our dedication to provide the ultimate in surroundings for our guests.
